ABSTRACT

This curriculum guide for Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA) English-as-a-Second-Language (ESL) programs lists competencies and resources for ESL and Civics instruction. Section A provides IRCA competency statements for beginning and intermediate levels of ESL instruction which integrate ESL and Civics competencies. The competencies in the IRCA list were selected from a complete set of competencies compiled by the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System (CASAS) and are organized into the following categories: Basic Communication (including social language, personal identification, and clarification), Consumer Economics (focussing on money and shopping), Community Resources (reviewing telephone, transportation, directions, post office, time, and community services), Health, Occupational Knowledge (including getting a job, and on the job language use), and Government and Law. Using the same categories, section B lists general competencies for ESL/Civics instruction selected from the CASAS list. Section C contains the IRCA Curriculum Index and Matrix, which links specific adult curricula and instructional materials to the ESL/Civics competencies. Section D provides a bibliography of citizenship materials and resources, and video materials considered by CASAS consortium members to be appropriate for IRCA programs. Section E presents a list of seven organizations that can serve as resources in teacher training. Finally, section F indicates the skill levels and possible program placements corresponding to CASAS scores. An 18-page appended supplement contains new materials added to sections D and E since publication of the September 1989 edition. (PAA)

IRCA CURRICULUM INDEX AND MATRIX TABLE OF CONTENTS

OVERVIEW

The IRCA Curriculum Index and Matrix links specific adult curriculum for the ESL/Civics competencies selected from the CASAS Competency List. Materials were recommended and reviewed by CASAS Consortium members and are competency-based, appropriate for IRCA ESL/Civics programs. The IRCA Curriculum Index and Matrix consists of two sections: the Curriculum Index and the Matrix.

Curriculum Index - List of publishers and materials

The IRCA Curriculum Index lists publishers, their mailing addresses and materials included in the IRCA Curriculum Matrix. Each publication is assigned a letter (designating the publisher) and a number (designating a specific publication for that publisher) which is used for coding purposes in the Matrix section.

This is a sample page from the Curriculum Index.

The letter "A"——indicates the publisher. In this case it is Addison-Wesley Publishing.

The number "2" here indicates the specific material. In this example it is Lifeskills and Citizenship.

Curriculum Matrix

The Curriculum Matrix links the information in the Index to the CASAS competencies. The letter and number designations (A-1, A-2, etc.) from the Index are on the top line to the right of "Publishers/Materials". The majority of the materials coded in the Matrix are appropriate for ESL (English as a Second Language) programs.

The level of instruction (for each material) is indicated by Pre A (orientation), A (beginning), B (intermediate), or C (advanced). The list of CASAS Competencies (three-digit code numbers) can be found in the left-hand column of each page and the specific chapter, unit, lesson or part numbers are coded into the Matrix to the right of each competency statement and under the appropriate publication.
